MORE ACTIVE DAY ON STOCK MARKET

Oils Hesitant Owing to Heavy Export Tolls From Mexico

NEW YORK, July 20.—Business on the stock exchange today was heavier and a little more active than during the early and intermediate stages of the week. There were no indications that shorts had materialized in their commitments.

Oil prices were hesitant, their course being governed by the heavy export tolls levied by the Mexican government. In some instances, however, a slight advance in prices was noted.

Steel prices in general, according to trade authorities, are expected to remain steady. The Federal Reserve bank reports that the market has closed.

London exchange developed a somewhat weaker tone. The London quotation approximated the present market rate, but French and Italian rates were lower.

Grain prices were generally steady. The London quotation approximated the present market rate, but French and Italian rates were lower.

STATE TO BLAME FOR CHILD ILLS

Health and Morals Must Both Be Very Well Guarded

DEER GROVE, Iowa, July 20.—From a different angle, but a no less important one, than that of the physical health of the child, the state is to be held responsible for the ill health of the child.

The National Kindergarten association has been active in the state, and the state is to be held responsible for the ill health of the child.

NOT ALL PROFIT IN LAW EVASION

Uncle Sam Finds a Way to Take Lien on Bootleggers

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 20.—If your Uncle Sam doesn't get you coming he is certain to get you going.

Bootleggers thought they were slipping one over on the old gentleman and "getting away with it," but they have discovered that though they sold liquor illegally the government is going to collect its pound of flesh in the way of revenue taxes.

For months there has been a powerful lot of bootlegging in this part of the state, according to current reports.

Some were caught and held in jail, but Uncle Sam will collect his little bill first—100 cents on the dollar and interest—and what is left, the other ordinary claimants, if there are any, may have.
